How healthy are our IU workplaces?

Our workplaces can encourage or discourage healthy choices and healthy lives. The following set of questions will help us take a closer look at our IU workplaces and how well they support the health of employees. When we say “your workplace,” we mean the building(s) where you usually work and places nearby that you can get to easily.

9. Overall, how safe do you think your workplace is? Please rate on a scale of 1-10 by circling the number.
